

One Shot

Rascalz

Yo
shit did they really and truly ya, mc's can't fool we ugh!

microphone gets rocked
rappers who cannot sent back to the block Why oh, mc are back again yo one shot salute who's steppin' in repping in the name of real mc's back again smacking them on purpose it ain't no accident when we snap back the microphone don't test this mcs wont last just don't know or afraid to ask rhymes irrevelent unintelligent

natural element
live on stage
my type don't stop killing it are for the love the cats we just drilling it all for the cash
nuff radio trash im just not felling it record company wheeling' and dealing it pimping and concealing it guilty filthy rich from years of stealing it hip hop we the one who originally make it let em infiltrate that not because fake cats thats why we back again we came take that gun finger in the air and bust back

Why oh, mc's are back again
say
one shot
break your whole crew
you're back on the microphone it's on you
mc's are back again

come on back like this the sole survivor I make the microphone liver then the next mc caught up and not free what you see in your mind's eye defines I the inter-galactical traveller the unraveller of ancient mysteries and questions forever tougher then leather like Run so I praise the one omnipotent most high omniscient I pray every day to achieve the permission so I speak the words while the rest get ubsub rap nerds talkin' this that and the 3rd what ya heard on your radio disregard they don't know the time they mentally scarred

so one shot

one shot

yo yo yo
in the dungeon where mc's are made before we ever get the chance yo to rhyme on stage where the dues are paid any fools get slayed tough and callous learn the tools of the trade see for now you's an undercard word up the rank no holds barred we need another team real flowin' show them not knowin' how we get spit rounds with sounds at the arms shelter
a brother like me
get your facts better cop a feel you're flat chested push the weight up son you're voice sounds restricted that's the way we come through with it we never quit k-dash msifit red one real mc's well telling you whats happenin'

one shot

sorry that we've been away
