

Temptation

Rascalz

Right about now
Introducing..
For sure..

You will do by your own anger
Lesson after welcome CB4
Another, who that be, Misfit, Ask why?
You're caught up in material existence
You must learn to escape the clutch of temptation
A means of staunch dicipline and hand in all your false ego got you thinkin
This network of illussion is the goal of your life misson
Keepin your own
Caught up in your extravaganza
For I will guide you through these words of my stances
Away from the amateur the prototype
Display the overnight so you heed the words of the wise
I practice what I preach there is no need to devise a plan
I see you ready to command
But you can't loose if you choose to route off the latest scam

Since God made man in his image
Yes I am a ruler of creation with destructive innovation
One who does and think do in the tempt and act that i'm doing
You gotta keep pursuing
The will to resist and proceed on the path of my vision
Function at the junction make the right decision
I try to live on parallel, cuz very well
I try not to intersect with temptation belt
I repel cuz I live the rebel guard to the way rage
All my hate distracted lyrical waste
Put your pack with the with the trick of the cobra Still with the fact is
Temptation prevails and the Red-1 will lack it
Sense of trail, face fell in eye
For hail to the lassie here to help my defy
Any obstacle that yeilds and needs me to step up and try
In turn that we reign like the Lord of the Flies

Straight up, I interject with the definition
Showing the difference, betwen Martinique
I continue to make the right decisions
So I succeed, in the force I believe
To carry on self-complacment
A ton of us wanna rust on originate rhymes

Among my shelter a leaf, the mental health
Is a must indeed to flip the track with ease
A double in the face of temptation
No way, no how
You can't learn me from my path
This line of determination keepin' me steadfast in the ways of the Misfit
I carry on with much persistence and never fall
It's a like a defense gratificiation
This objective evidence you're comteplatin' on Rewind, and absorb the song and hopefully
Soon you'll see, that you too should come along

It's a call of temptation, got my mind chasin'
Knowing that I'm wasting time in this situation
Battlin' thoughts of should I, shouldn't I
With my conscience I use to decide
It's a call of temptation, got my mind pacin'
And knowin' that I'm wasting time in this situation
Battlin' thoughts of should I, shouldn't I

Each has potential to get caught by the dental grip,
And the mental trick become a victim come fortify the signal
The trick is you gotta know how to pick em
The TV, you ditch em
For me, throw those thoughts to the side
And bring thoughts of consequence and beef up and open in the wide
A matter of pride, just be able to burn from within and this time
And you let a bygone for a few days and you might find
A bunch of good things
And you know good things bring possibilities of bad ones not have to name th e bring you tempted
Remember the Red-1 says to pay attention to that little voice guest in your head

It's a call of temptation, got my mind chasin'
Knowing that I'm wasting time in this situation
Battlin' thoughts of should I, shouldn't I
With my conscience I use to decide
It's a call of temptation, got my mind pacin'
And knowin' that I'm wasting time in this situation
Battlin' thoughts of should I, shouldn't I
