

Don't Let Him Get Away

Rasheeda

Don't give a damb what my friends say
I ain't bout to let him get away
Cause he know just how to love me, just how to treat me
Just how to hold me down
So if you've got a good man, say eh
If you down for your man, ssay eh
Do he know how to love you?
Know how to treat you?
Know how to hold you down?
Don't let him get away

My man's right here
No one on the block got a swagger like him
That's why I pay these others no attention
I'm so addicted I need intervention
Gucci belt holding up his efliction
Is that your hood bitch? Yeah, no sespition
Cause he's so fly, he know just how to love it
Just how to treat it, just how to rub it
If I ain't feeling 100, he reasures me I'm his one and only woman
Giving me his all, and I damb sure want it
Yep I got a winner, Imma damb sure flaunt it

Don't give a damb what my friends say
I ain't bout to let him get away
Cause he know just how to love me, just how to treat me
Just how to hold me down
So if you've got a good man, say eh
If you down for your man, ssay eh
Do he know how to love you?
Know how to treat you?
Know how to hold you down?
Don't let him get away

I gotta keep it hot for my man
Sexy panty bra set under the latest fashion
Always whispering "I love you", never gotta ask him
And he like my body, so I stay up in the gym
I keep it nice and trim, like it should be
For him I will pop the tushy, know what's up with these cookies
Surprising me with Luie bags just because
No other chick do it like I does
He's so official, so on point, knows just what to say
I give him plenty reasons why, here's where he'll stay
Here is where he'll lay, right next to me
Feeling it now, this is how love's supposed to be

Don't give a damb what my friends say
I ain't bout to let him get away
Cause he know just how to love me, just how to treat me
Just how to hold me down
So if you've got a good man, say eh
If you down for your man, ssay eh
Do he know how to love you?
Know how to treat you?
Know how to hold you down?
Don't let him get away

Look, he know how to treat me
Know how to love me, know how to please me
At first I thought "this is too good to be true"
And my homegirls was like "I don't know about that dude"
I don't care what my friends say, and I ain't bout to let him get away
Cause when you know it's right, you can just feel it
Don't let them haters interfear and try to steal it
I got somebody who loves me for me
Tell me I can have whatever I like, he's such a G
My partner, my friend, my lover
I can never see myself with another

Don't give a dammb what my friends say
I ain't bout to let him get away
Cause he know just how to love me, just how to treat me
Just how to hold me down
So if you've got a good man, say eh
If you down for your man, ssay eh
Do he know how to love you?
Know how to treat you?
Know how to hold you down?
Don't let him get away
