

Bones

The Rasmus

My heart is hidden
Forbidden
Can't be forgiven
All the faith is on the line

The end is written
I pretend
It's a mistake
I orchestrate my own decline

You think you know me
You hold me just like you own me
Living in a perfect lie
I face the karma for all the pain and drama
I feel like I was buried alive

And every time you kiss me
My heart turns into stone
And every time you touch me
Darkness grips on my bones
My bones

I hide a secret
So twisted
It hurts to keep it quiet deep inside my mind

I've been mistaken
Forsaken
There's no escaping
Something keeps me up at night

I crawl in her bed
I feel no regret
I hear your voice inside my head

'Cause I betrayed you
In your weakest moment
I know that I deserve to be dead

And every time you kiss me
My heart turns into stone
And every time you touch me
Darkness grips on my bones

When you hold me
And every time you touch me
Darkness grips on my bones
My bones
My bones
