

Endless Horizon

The Rasmus

You asked me to stay
But I am a leaver
You told me to stop
But I just went deeper
I've been drifting
Too long in the stormy waters
I've been missing you
When my feet can't touch the bottom

You are an island in my horizon
You, strong and silent in endless horizon
For me

Fear leads to anger
And I've been beaten
Now they have their answer
'Cause I float like a heathen
But the time won't change it
I'm always chasing thunder
I'd rather be faithless
And let the deepness pull me under

You are an island in my horizon
You, strong and silent in endless horizon
For me

You told me 'bout tomorrow
But it's too late, I'm far from you
I'm drowning in the sorrow
Nothing to say, I lost you

(You are an island in my horizon)
Lost in stormy water
I can't touch the bottom
Lost in stormy water
(You are an island in my horizon)
Lost in stormy water
Lost in stormy water
(For me)
