

Since You've Been Gone

The Rasmus

Since you've been gone I've been alone
Feeling untied and free
No more crying on the phone
No more slavery

End of the misery I'm breaking free

Since you've been gone things have come so clear to me
Just wanna shout cause I'm able to breathe
Oh... since you've been gone I've been free

Since we crashed and fell apart
We've been history
Since we trashed this dying love
No more agony, no

End of the misery I'm breaking free

Since you've been gone things have come so clear to me
Just wanna shout cause I'm able to breathe
Oh... since you've been gone I've been free

Since you've been gone things have come so clear to me
Just wanna shout cause I'm able to breathe

Since you've been gone things have come so clear to me
Just wanna shout cause I'm able to breathe
Oh... since you've been gone I've been free
Oh... since you've been gone I've been...
Oh... I've been free
Oh... things have come clear to me
Oh... I'm free

Since you've been gone I've been alone
