

TIME ON MY MIND

RAT BOY

Move out the way man and I'll settle this
Taking leaks making beats blinded by the bittersweet
This mans I'll I think he needs some penicillin
I should check my self but hell I'm to busy killing

Too much wrong so far gone in this day and age
It seems that I've gotta play by the rules to get played nah
This ain't a song it's a birth of a movement
I ain't sold out or changed it's called improvement

Waiting for a nuclear disaster
So he gives a damn about my future
Waiting for a nuclear disaster
So he gives a damn about my future
Waiting for a nuclear disaster
So he gives a damn about my future
Waiting for a nuclear disaster
So he gives a damn about my future

Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind

Roll the window down on the bmw
I took a slash tyre gashed think I'm running out of cash
Just a feeling
Trapped beneath the ceiling
I stopped believing
When the word kept feeding

Misleading information
Caught in dead end nation
All I got was condemnation
But no one knows my situation
Who knows where I'll be and who cares
What's makes you so much better than me

Waiting for a nuclear disaster
So he gives a damn about my future
Waiting for a nuclear disaster
So he gives a damn about my future

Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind

Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind

In the house of commons I see no common sense
House prices going up
Now I can't pay for rent
So alone I roam to go home
Where the disaster always feasts
No power at this hour
From the towers to the streets

Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
Guess it could be a sign
Time ain't on my mind
