

Violent Glare

RAT BOY

Not an indecisive man, I'm just looking forward
So that I can't make my heart have feelings that I've been torn
And I lose myself in a difficult situation
Probably why my last binge turned it so sour
Over power by any means, peers always lean on what I dream
To resume the fate and [?] country
Bullet is in the air, no one really seems to care
Round here

Round here where everything goes
Homeless people on the street in expensive clothes
Round here where fear's lurking everywhere
Giving me the violent glare, I swear
Round here where everything goes
Homeless people on the street in expensive clothes
Round here where fear's lurking everywhere
Giving me the violent glare, I swear

Round here where everything goes
Homeless people on the street in expensive clothes
Round here where fear's lurking everywhere
Giving me the violent glare, I swear
Round here where everything goes
Homeless people on the street in expensive clothes
Round here where fear's lurking everywhere
Giving me the violent glare, I swear

(I'd been carrying a knife in a situation where I actually love s to get into a fight and I got blood rage
I would've definitely have done it...)
