

On the porch at Kling Thing
I was waking up with the Dragon Queen
Brushed my teeth in the morning dust
Hit the road again, but we left a note

Led my boys through the mountain range
Never paid a toll, snaked along the back way

In Orlando's outer space
The Misfit Toys hoverboarded on stage
Late night Wawa trips aligned
With white stars above and Mitar's guitar line

I slept in the car that night
Liked to be alone, yeah it felt just right

Spent New Year's Eve in Albany
Played a blacked-out set at 12:15
High-fived some parents sipping Genny Creams
Dabbed out on the deck with Kory Gregory

To the man we almost ran over that afternoon
I'd like to formally apologize, we turned too soon
Won't ever forget what we put you through

Played Addam's Family pinball at Barleycorn's
Got to hug Nathan K down by the thrift store
Turned down loud rockin' in The Pool
I was floating 'round South Bend like a motorized noodle

Living for the day I get to go back to Ames
I got so stoned in Minneapolis I laughed for days
My heart's a hundred tiny creatures that live and sway
Where I am, but also far away
