

I Want You (Fall 2010)

Ratboys

I could tell that we'd be friends
From the first moment, we walked around and started talkin'
All about our favorite bands
Got a quarter dog and snuck you in at 2 A.M.
Now we're drivin' 'round Michigan
Hours flyin' by, with the windows down just listening to
Maps and atlases
We're so lost, but it's whatever
And I'm working up the guts to say that

I got my mind
Running to you, I know it's hard to say why
But I really want you to
I got my mind
Running to you, I know it's hard to say why
But I want you

No, I've never met anyone quite like you before
Yeah, it's right, I love this feeling
Burning all my blank CD's never meant so much to me

'Cause I got my mind
Running to you, I know it's hard to say why
But I really want you to
I got my mind
Running to you, I know it's hard to say why
But I want you

I got my mind
Running to you, I know it's hard to say why
But I really want you to
I got my mind
Running to you, I know it's hard to say why
But I want you

I can't pretend
That I wanna just be friends
So, take my hand
Let's hang out forever starting now
The Fall of 2010
