

You've Changed

Ratboys

Decisions aren't that hard
When all you've got to think about
Is the life you've had so far
Just to realize the things that you loved
Were happenstance and objectively boring

You've changed
And it's so sad
You've changed
And we feel bad

The laughter of the past
Has filled our hearts with sorrow
And it is what it is at last
Just to open a drawer with a gift inside
Meant for pleasure, but forcibly given back to us

You've changed
And it's so sad
You've changed
And we feel bad

You've changed
And it's so sad
You've changed
And we feel bad
