

Run And Hide

Ratcat

(S.DAY)

Times when we laught all night,
I ain't no happier in my life.
When we're fighting all day long,
cats and dogs could sing this song.
Oh yeah.... I love you so...
Sometimes we fight all day,
when two people both want their way.
And i can't seem to work it out,
I love that when you scream and shout.
Oh yeah I love you so,
and I always let you know.
I adore you,
never let you go,
and i adore you,
and i will never let you go.
Sometimes we funk all night,
I love that when you hold me tight.
And then when you do me wrong,
I get the blues and I sing this song.
Oh yeah I love you so,
and I always let you know.
I wanna be by you side,
when we run away and hide.
I adore you,
never let you go, oh no.
and i adore you,
and i will never let you.....
