

Baby when I'm 73
Will you still want me like you wanted before
Memories are slipping on me
I know I feel it like I felt it before
It keeps pulling me

Baby when I'm 73
Are you still smiling when I walk through the door
I'll give you a love you can keep
Will you hold on to it and never let go
Keep pulling me
Keep pulling me

You can be honest
If you feel it fade away
I'm just a dreamer
But I know that people change
Right now I need you
Like the deserts needs the rain
And I
Oh I

I don't think you'll ever really understand
Take it all away and I'm a poorer man
I know that I'll never feel so high
Feel so high you give me life

I don't think you'll ever really understand
Take it all away and I'm a poorer man
I know that I'll never feel so high feel so high you give me life

Baby when I'm 73
Will you still want me like you wanted before
Memories are slipping on me
I know I'll feel it like I felt it before
Keep pulling me

Baby when I'm 73
Will you still want me like you wanted before
Memories are slipping on me
I know I'll feel it like I felt it before
Keeps pulling me
Pulling
Baby when I'm 73
Keep pulling, pulling
Baby when I'm 73
