Explosions

Rationale

Call it what you...

Call it what you wanna
Destiny or just a feeling
You built a kingdom in a palace
Now you're afraid
Afraid

You say I'm overzealous
Geronimo in lovers bay
I'll pay the penance
For just another day in your space
Your space

And all that I am I give over to you
Like burgundy skies you are my golden view
Every moment alone feels like the 4th of July
I hope, I hope you feel explosions too

Call me Nostradamus
This is more than just a feeling
I'll put my passion in the balance
But I won't fade, won't fade

Oh I know trusting ain't easy
But I will not cause you pain
Gimme your love and your heart
And I won't let you fall for from grace

(You give me happiness)
And all that I am I give over to you
Like burgundy skies you are my golden view
Every moment alone feels like the 4th of July
My golden view
My golden view

You give me something that I just can't lose
I wanna feel this wave with you
No I will never find a substitute
But I hope, I hope you feel explosions too

Happiness
Happiness
Happiness

I hope you feel explosions

Happiness
No regrets
In your chest
But I hope I hope you feel explosions too

Happiness
Happiness
Happiness

Happiness

No regrets

I hope I hope you feel explosions too
