Into The Blue

Rationale

I try to listen
Let my mind take control
Fight with my body
Rules my mind, overthrown

So it's only getting harder
Everytime I gotta leave you
Is that punching underwater
You know
So it's only getting harder
Everytime I gotta leave you
Is that punching underwater
You know

That I'm
Falling into the blue
With you
I'm
Falling into the blue
With you

I learned my lesson
Everytime I try to never do
It's gonna take me far, intervention
Before I'm leaving you

So it's only getting harder
Everytime I gotta leave you
Is that punching underwater
You know

That I'm
Falling into the blue
With you
I'm
Falling into the blue
With you
I resign myself to ruin
I resign myself to ruin, yeah
I'm
Falling into the blue
With you

Heart keeps telling me I don't know what I'm missing
What I'm missing
What I'm missing
You keep telling me this time will be different
Will it be different?
It's never different

'Cause I'm
Falling into the blue
With you
I'm
Falling into the blue
With you
I resign myself to ruin

I resign myself to ruin, yeah
I'm
Falling into the blue
With you
With you
With you
With you
With you
I'm
Falling into the blue
With you
