

Somewhere To Belong

Rationale

Lately I've been leaning on those tired songs you used to play to me
And it's funny now that you are gone I've finally found the words I need to say, to say

I'm just a dreamer
Just waiting for a hand to lead the way
I should be stronger
Deep down I'm a child still trying to find a way I can hide away

Somewhere to belong
(All I really want is somewhere to belong)
Somewhere to belong
(I can't roam this world alone now, alone now)
Somewhere to belong
(All I really need is somewhere to belong)
Somewhere to belong
(All I really need is)
Somewhere to belong

I'm sinking ship without its oars, a troubled man without a cause to claim
And maybe I will never find that all-elusive peace of mind again, again

I'm just a dreamer
Waiting for a hand to lead the way, oh-ah
I should be stronger
Deep down I'm a child still trying to find a way I can hide away

Somewhere to belong
(All I really want is somewhere to belong)
Somewhere to belong
(I can't roam this world alone now, alone now)
Somewhere to belong
(All I really need is somewhere to belong)
Somewhere to belong
(All I really need is)
Somewhere to belong
...

Somewhere to belong
(All I really want is somewhere to belong)
Somewhere to belong
(I can't roam this world alone now, alone now)
Somewhere to belong
(All I really need is somewhere to belong)
Somewhere to belong
(All I really need is)
Somewhere to belong
To belong-yeah
Somewhere to belong
