People love to take

'Course and it makes

Them feel good

Feels good to get, but it's harder to give, live

With what decisions you make

Take

Ask, get, that, take, take

But it's harder to give

Hard to live

With what decisions you make

With what decisions you make

With what decisions you make

With what decisions you make

With what decisions you make

With what decisions you make

With what decisions you make

With what decisions you make

Used to hate, now they take and eat it all up

Used to hate, now they take and eat it all up

Used to hate, now they take and eat it all up

Used to hate, now they take and eat it all up

Only given what I'm given when I give it

Only given what I'm given when I give it

Only given what I'm given when I give it

Thank you for you, you beautiful fools

Losing your cool but it's cool

You give me my grace, I give you this food, now eat it

Respect it, digest it and shit it but keep the nutrition

These blessings embedded in recipes rest in my dishes

I'm only given what I'm given when I give it cause it feel good

Ratking illusion fuck you real good

Bitch, nigga

And I ain't using my dick, I mind fuck you to bits

And piece you back to a hieroglyphic scripture scripted above

These fucks claiming they bad

Hydrogen mask so I don't fall for the gas, you full of shit

That you deserve and a handful of this
