Gotham

Rauf & Faik

I am looking for myself
I've been looking for myself every day since I was born
It was my destiny
I had a dream
At some point of my life I made it come true, a part of my drea m
A part of my dream
Then God took everything away from me
And I realized that in life you cannot chase much attention

I found him
A demon stalks me every day
But I will
I will fight and kill him
Now I'm here
I died
But I was born again
Now I'm ready to destroy my own Gotham

Only you can use my mind again
I have such a fate
On my brain
On my brain
Only you save my life again
I have such a fate
Every day
