

Sunseed

Raul Seixas

(by Raul Seixas & Spacy Glow)

You were born at the ending
As the curtain came down
I can see you're confused girl
But it's all right
It's only the chime
Announcing a new time
You see now

Boats are cruising the deserts
Oceans cracked by the heat
People drowning in raindrops
But it's all right
It's not a defeat
Stand on your own feet

Right now the sun doesn't shine
He's loaded on wine
Though I can laugh in the storm
Because I was born
When the sun used to
Shine in June
