

Everything Will Wait

Raury

Satellites
Brewing in my head
Proving what you said
Wasn't nothing
Galvanise
Everything you feel
Only thing that's real
In the nothing
Passify
Humbly you pray
Somewhere you'll be safe
From the nothing
Calcify
Everything will stay
Everything will wait
For your loving (love, love)

You chose to hold it down for him
Before you did for me
I understand (hey)
You chose to hold it down for him
Before you did for me
I understand (hey)
You chose to hold it down for him
Before you did for me
I understand (hey)
You chose to hold it down for him
Before you did for me
I understand (hey)
