(Oh, oh, oh, oh)

True, though I left you
I'm exploring my love
True, though I left you
I miss loving my ohhhh

Some live in churches, some magnify
Other move their [?]
Who would rather die ohhhh
We're not, we're not tired of running running around
Running around

True, though I left you
I was growing, I was growing
True, won't forget you
I respect you, your decisions

Did you believe in me?
Or were you deceiving me
Once again yeah
Though I'm tired of running of running running around
Running around, running around
(Running, running, running)
Running around
(Running, running, running)
