I feel so anomolated
I feel so innoculated
Not to make it complicated
Not to make it complicated
She said how the gone to make a
He gave down by enokayaka
She fed my imaginations
All illusions and frustrations
Blood on her coagulated
All torn up and lacerated
Weaving patterns complicated

Levels are intoxicated
Levels are intoxicated
Levels are intoxicated
Levels are intoxicated
Levels are intoxicated

I didn't mean to distance us
Or chase you into distance love
I pray today I'll fade away
As soon as there's forgiveness love
I saw you, there was instant love
How could I dare forget this love
Forget this love, forget this love
And bear the child of another man
I understand you're moving on
I promise I will soon be gone
I know I'm burned deep into the back of your cerebellum
I met you in a high-school hall

I met you in a high-school hall
When I was going through withdrawals
Of all the things that I went through
When my mind was much more small
You hate this place, I hate it too
But we didn't have that much to do
And if we weren't trapped in here
Would I have ever dated you?
Would I have ever noticed you?
You would never notice me
I don't really know but as soon as we get to be free
Would you be my mini-moe
Would I have been the one you chose
The one you chose, the one you chose, the one you chose

Would I have been the one you chose?
Would I have been the one you chose?
Would I have been the one you chose?

'Cause no one ever chooses me
No one ever chooses me
Keep this between you and me
'Cause no one ever chooses me
Said no one ever chooses me
