

Alpha vs. Omega

Rave the Requiem

Her eyes glow red
Like lasers in the dark
The predator hunts her prey
Watching me closely from afar
She's ultraviolet, so violent
Always keeping silent
She's the sun and I'm the robin lost in the desert

No truth
No time to waste
I will lose
Goddamn disgrace
I push hard, she pushes harder
What doesn't kill me makes her stronger
No truth
No time to waste
I will lose
Goddamn disgrace
Chew me up, spit me out
Rinse and repeat, I won't give up

Fighting a war like a self declared hero
Aiming for the sky but sailing for zero
The vultures are hungry
They're circling in the sky
Waiting for the battle tonight

Fighting a war like a prisoner on death row
I don't wanna die but I think that she cares not
Out from the darkness
Fighting our goddess
Queen Omega will stand victorious

Her breath is like fire when she lights a spark
Provoking her prey like the arm of the law
She's coldhearted, underfed
I think she wants to see me dead
Feasting like a vulture on my corpse in the desert

No truth
No time to waste
I will lose
Goddamn disgrace
I push hard, she pushes harder
What doesn't kill me makes her stronger
No truth
No time to waste
I will lose
Goddamn disgrace
Chew me up, spit me out
Rinse and repeat, I won't give up

Fighting a war like a self declared hero
Aiming for the sky but sailing for zero
The vultures are hungry
They're circling in the sky
Waiting for the battle tonight

Fighting a war like a prisoner on death row
I don't wanna die but I think that she cares not
Out from the darkness
Fighting our goddess
Queen Omega will stand victorious

I'm waiting, I'm biding my time
I have reconciled
And heaven's on my mind
I proclaim, I gather the clouds
Let the prophecy be told before it all goes down

Fighting a war like a self declared hero
Aiming for the sky but sailing for zero
The vultures are hungry
They're circling in the sky
Waiting for the battle tonight

Fighting a war like a prisoner on death row
I don't wanna die but I think that she cares not
Out from the darkness
Fighting our goddess
Queen Omega will stand victorious
Queen Omega will stand victorious
