Rave the Requiem

I fear our Lord no longer hears our prayers

The ocean's cold, but I survive
I keep warm from the rage
Burning deep inside
Like a slave in a deep dark place
Breathing underwater in a sunken cage

It is dragging me down from below
The black of the ocean is calling me
But I'm standing tall on my own
I fear our Lord no longer hears our prayers

How do I keep on fighting?
Somehow, keep on walking on the razor's edge
How do I survive this?
I'm tearing my skin
Holding on to the splinters of a crumbling edge

Maybe 'cause Babylon is falling!
I am still standing
Either way I will make it!
'Cause I am carrying
The heart of a colossus!
Heart of a colossus!

The ocean's cold, but I somehow
Keep warm from sleeping in a bed on fire
All the love in the world is but a drop of faith
Into an endless ocean of hate

It is dragging me down from below
The black of the ocean is calling me
But I'm standing tall on my own
I fear our Lord no longer hears our prayers

How do I keep on fighting?
Somehow, keep on walking on the razor's edge
How do I survive this?
I'm tearing my skin
Holding on to the splinters of a crumbling edge

Maybe 'cause Babylon is falling!
I am still standing
Either way I will make it!
'Cause I am carrying
The heart of a colossus!
Heart of a colossus!

I fear our Lord no longer hears our prayers

How do I keep on fighting?
Somehow, keep on walking on the razor's edge
How do I survive this?
I'm tearing my skin
Holding on to the splinters of a crumbling edge

Maybe 'cause Babylon is falling!
I am still standing
Either way I will make it!
'Cause I am carrying
The heart of a colossus!
Heart of a colossus!

Heart of a colossus!
Heart of a colossus!

Heart of a colossus!
