

God, Demon, Machine

Rave the Requiem

No peace for anybody
I wish the worst for you
I'm 'bout to share the pain that I have to suffer through
The Devil is back
I'm off the track
Stuck in a cul-de-sac
I'll throw a pity party which you're all invited to

Meet my avatar
Anxiety superstar
King Baby's once again the center of attention
Unleash the mood swings
Rapid and maddening
Causing quite a stir to the crowd's satisfaction

I made my way to the brink of disaster
Destination: Hell
Going faster and faster
It's how I roll
How I feed my addiction
Taking every chance just to cause destruction
Like a tidal wave
Strong and brave
Just to crash down like a burning jetplane
Everyday is a wheel of fortune for me
Who will I be?
God?
Demon?
Machine?

The peace of yesterday is history
You know me
I'm steady as a feather in the Storm of the Century
I take it all back
Dig up the ax I buried and cover my tracks
I'm off to meet my maker
Nobody can stop me
