

Ofelia

Rave the Requiem

Her heart is restless when she tries to sleep
She's paralyzed
But still waters run deep

She'd rather die standing than living on her knees
She'd rather go to war than slaving in peace

Don't you dare try to swim
Let the ocean in
Waves break what is aching within

All colors have faded
But one inside you
Like the eyes of the Devil
Eternally blue
Let your guard down, Ofelia
You know it is true
Show no mercy
They will show none to you

Her heart quiets when she's put to sleep
Come, sweet relief
In the ocean she'll breathe

She'd rather die standing than living on her knees
She'd rather go to war than slaving in peace

Don't you dare try to swim
Let the ocean in
Waves break what is aching within

All colors have faded
But one inside you
Like the eyes of the Devil
Eternally blue
Let your guard down, Ofelia
You know it is true
Show no mercy
They will show none to you

Ofelia
You know it is true
Ofelia
You know what to do
Let your guard down, Ofelia
You know it is true
They will show none to you

Let your guard down, Ofelia
You know it is true
Show no mercy
They will show none to you
None to you

All colors have faded
But one inside you
Like the eyes of the Devil

Eternally blue
Let your guard down, Ofelia
You know it is true
Show no mercy
They will show none to you

Ofelia
You know it is true
Ofelia
You know what to do
Let your guard down, Ofelia
You know it is true
