

So you think you got a hold on me
Really dug into my brain
I'm attuned to all the bullshit
I'm in tune with earth and rain

Now you're telling everybody that you know me?
What's the use in that?
I don't wanna hear from you or hear your name
That's the truth, get used to that

Baby, don't touch me
You don't know how
You can't love me now
Baby, don't hold me
You don't hold me down
You can't love me now

No, you can't control me (no)
Subtle things you say to break me down
It don't really phase me
Now I'm blooming 12 feet off the ground

Don't want no fake sympathy
No late apologies
Don't try and fool me with that game
I tried out just everything
Good sex to good therapy
Took a bit to get to say and

Baby, don't touch me
You don't know how
You can't love me now
Baby, don't hold me
You don't hold me down
You can't love me now

Ooh, told myself I'm deserving of Ooh, wrap myself in music and sun
Ooh, what good is living without love
Ooh, what good is it?

Baby, don't touch me
You don't know how
You can't love me now
Baby, don't hold me
You don't hold me down
You can't love me now
