

Endless Summer

Raveena

Wait for a minute now
Thought you were my wildest dreams
Now we cry in window seats
Like spring in New York then
People dancing in the street
Don't they know death is in a few weeks?
But they didn't care
Let the light in
Let it hit your hair

Why do seasons have to change
Why does love grow, then burn to flames?
Why do people leave and die?
Endless summer now, one more time
Endless summer please, one more time

Hm
Hm, hm
Hm, hm, hm, hm, hm
Hm, hm

I'm such a fool for him
In the throes of a fight
I would kiss him out of spite
No, though I don't know how to love
No, I don't know how, no, I don't know to love

Why do seasons have to change
Why does love grow, then burn to flames?
Why do people leave and die?
Endless summer now, one more time
Endless summer please, one more time

Endless summer (Endless summer, please)
Endless summer (Hm, hm, hm)
Endless summer
