

Stronger

Raveena

Holy as the sunrise, clear as water
I was so naive to think a man could be stronger than me
I'm stronger, stronger, stronger
You make me love everybody but me (But me, but me)
You make me hurt everybody, but Almost sacrificial lamb, I'm laying here trippin'
A call, a call from heaven Meant to be a mother then a lover, but you wouldn't let me (Let me, ohh)
I know you love to see me broken, you live to see me confused
On my knees, don't talk too soon, I ain't dead yet, but I am

Holy as the sunrise, clear as water
I was so naive to think a man could be stronger than me
I'm stronger, stronger, stronger
Stronger, stronger, stronger

Take care of me, take care of me
Take care of me, take care of me
Take care

Sun come up, take me
Sun come up
Sun come up and take me
Sun come up...
