

Reborn

Ravenheart

Breaking down the world
No way for a rebirth
Lose yourself and let us be
You will see
The sky will turn from blue to grey
And all that we can say
Is waiting for a better day

The time is passing by
Look into the sky
See a star
Reborn for you and for us all

We are prisoners with no key
What you want is what you'll be
For now and for eternity
We hope that we can run away
With strong hearts we will stay
And we will hope for a better day

The time is passing by
Look into the sky
See a star
Reborn for you and for us all

Believe in you
It's the only way to go
And you see the light of the stars
So let us see
What the future brings to you
Then we know that's the truth

Believe in you
And you see the light of the stars
So let us see
What the future brings to you
Then we know
Yes we know

Hear the fallen angels sing
Glory to the unborn king
Glory all the nations rise
Join the triumph of the sky
Hear the fallen angels cry
See the old one king will die
On the sky a star will be reborn

We can see the time goes by
And we look into the sky
For one time we see a star
We see a star reborn

What the time will bring
An unborn king
Raise up your hands and sing
All what we want

To see a star will be reborn

What the time will bring

An unborn king

Raise up your hands and sing

All what we want

To see a star will be reborn
