

Soulmoon

Ravenland

Song of my soul runs
In the infinity
And calls you
Perfect symphony to the celestial holocaust
You are and end lover as me

Unvirging the sacred beauty, nocturnal

That cover us as a mother covering her son
The breeze of my frozen breath cuts the cloths
Which cover you for your revelation
Your body molded by hands
Undescribed in your exuberance
Letting gods and mortals into madness
Conciliating the divinities precedent from the waters
The mistress of the past

Unvirging the sacred beauty, nocturnal

The moon was lost
But she is the witch of the night
Last night she bled
Now she's back for more

But i'm sorry
I betray the witch inside me
And she still burns
I got my reason back

Fall asleep
In the eternity
Nude moon with its eternal virginity

Unvirging the sacred beauty, nocturnal
