

I know 'bout the battles you fight every day
The thought of going back to your old ways
I can see in your eyes that it tears you apart
Wasting all your strength to push back the dark

When your body's screaming yes but your head keeps saying no
Just lose yourself completely and just let go

Can you feel it now?
That sweet release
Down deep inside your soul
Makes you weak in the knees
Don't bother try and fight
There's nowhere left to hide
Sometimes we just need a little chaos in our lives

It's been so long since you let yourself have a taste
Denying the high as it pumps through your veins
Why hold back the person that you are inside
To live while never feeling alive?

When your body's screaming yes but your head keeps saying no
Just lose yourself completely and just let go

Can you feel it now?
That sweet release
Down deep inside your soul
Makes you weak in the knees
Don't bother try and fight
Sometimes we just need a little chaos...

When your body's screaming yes but your head keeps saying no
Just lose yourself completely and just let go!

Can you feel it now?
That sweet release
Down deep inside your soul
Makes you weak in the knees
Don't bother try and fight
Sometimes we just need a little chaos in our lives
