

Dark Passenger

Ravenscode

Part of me you'll never know
You'll never see this side in any mirror
It's a face that you see locked away
For all these years
Scratching at all the locks
Searching endlessly to find a key
Never had a moments rest
Cuz I know that he's

Along for the ride
Wherever I go
This feeling inside
Wish that I didn't know
Well I can't hold him off
But it's starting to show
My dark passenger
He's all I've ever

Knowing is a fallacy
And nothing motivates quite like fear
When your afraid to ask the question
"Why we're here?"
Don't even try to hide
Cuz he always knows where you've been
About time that you learn
You're not alone cuz' he's

Along for the ride
Wherever I go
This feeling inside
Wish that I didn't know
Well I can't hold him off
But it's starting to show
My dark passenger
He's out of control

Along for the ride
Wherever I go
This feeling inside
Wish that I didn't know
Well I can't hold him off
But it's starting to show
My dark passenger
He's out of control
