Imagine

Ravenscode

Just imagine if the looks that you gave could kill someone
Could you even stand to look them in the eye?

Just imagine if the looks that you gave could kill someone
Would you even have the nerve to give it a try?
What if all the words you use could take a life away?
Would you give them a chance to say goodbye?

The strength that we have is all we believe in
But we're still so weak, and in fear of changing
Push people aside even though they're our brothers
Forgetting so quickly, blood's thicker than water

Just imagine if the looks that you gave could save someone
Don't you owe it to yourself to give it a try?
What if all the words you use could bring someone to life?
Would you change the world for them tonight?

The strength that we have is all we believe in
But we're still so weak, and in fear of changing
Push people aside even though they're our brothers
Forgetting so quickly, blood's thicker than water

It seems to me that we have lost our way (and we have lost our way)
So be the change you wanna see today
And if we hold on to each other from start (and if we hold on t o each other)
We're stronger when together than apart
