

Letting You Go

Ravenscode

Forever is never as long as you think
When it feels like you're being pushed up to the brink
Of not knowing where life started passing you by
You don't know where you're going and you've never known why

This is how I felt before I met you
Then my life started turning out the way I wanted it to Now it'll just take a second I just thought you should know tha t
The hardest thing I've ever done was letting you go

I know, you'll be just fine
I've moved on already and I'm feeling alright
You'll forget me before too long
But until then, baby, this is your song

The times that we shared, those memories we made
I couldn't understand why everything had to change
Our long nights together, staying up until the dawn
After all the times we've had, I can't believe that you're gone

I know, you'll be just fine
I've moved on already and I'm feeling alright
You'll forget me before too long
But until then, baby, this is your song

Now it'll just take a second, I just thought you should know th at
The hardest thing I've ever done was letting you go

I know, you'll be just fine
I've moved on already and I'm feeling alright
You'll forget me before too long
But until then, baby, this is your song
Until then, honey, this is your song
Until then, darling, this is your song