

Tell me, baby
How's the other side?
Can I maybe
Steal you from the night?
And if it's an issue
I'll say I miss you
I'd rather not
I'd rather not
And if it's an issue
That I wanna kiss you
I'd rather not
I'd rather not, no

Birds and tigers, storm survivors
None were all here first
Underwater, son and daughter
Save the universe

But I think I want you
For a thousand, for a thousand
And I think I've loved you
For a thousand, for a thousand (a thousand years)

Tell me, baby
When they gave us life
Did they maybe
Crown me as your wife?
When your name goes in my brain
The time took me apart
(I think they all know, I think they all know)
Cause when your father clothed me
I was [?] on your heart
I saw it all, I saw it all grow

Birds and tigers, storm survivors
None were all here first
Underwater, son and daughter
Save the universe

But I think I want you
For a thousand, for a thousand
And I think I've loved you
For a thousand, for a thousand
A thousand years, a thousand years
A thousand years
