

Inside Out

Ravyn Lenae

I wonder why suddenly I can fly
No one can shake me now
And there were times you'd take me high to break me down
Then I'd come back around

I know I've been here before
Been here before, I entrap my own mind
And then I feel insecure
Feel insecure, I think now's the right time

Ooh, I'm starting from the inside
Stick your chin up, see if you are satisfied (Satisfied)
Take a look in the mirror and decide
Put a grin up even when you wanna cry
Take a look in the mirror
Don't deny yourself from nothing, it's not worth it
I love me from the inside out
Stick your chin up when you're in doubt
Yell your name from the inside out

I wonder why suddenly I'm attacked
No one can shake me now
And there were times you'd take me high to break me down
No other way around

I know I've been here before
Been here before, I entrap my own mind
And then I feel insecure
Feel insecure, I think now's the right time

Ooh, I'm starting from the inside
Stick your chin up, see if you are satisfied (Ooh)
Take a look in the mirror and decide
Put a grin up even when you wanna cry (You wanna cry)
Take a look in the mirror
Don't deny yourself from nothing, it's not worth it
I love me from the inside out
Stick your chin up when you're in doubt
Yell your name from the inside out (Oh)

Even when you wanna cry, take a look inside
Let no one kill your pride even when they try to (Dry all your tears up)
Dry all your tears up, see yourself clearer, you are the way
Even when you're giving up, know that you're enough
And if I give it time, I know there's some truth
You are much bigger, see yourself clearer

Look in the mirror, oh
See if you are satisfied
Take a look in the mirror and decide (Ooh)
Put a grin up even when you wanna cry
Take a look in the mirror (Oh)
Don't deny yourself from nothing, it's not worth it
I love me from the inside out
Stick your chin up when you're in doubt
Yell your name from the inside out

When you're giving up, know that you're enough
Singing, "You're the one," oh, oh, no
When you're giving up, know that you're enough (You're giving up, just know that you're enough)
Singing, "You're the one"
When you're giving up, know that you're enough (You're giving up, just know that you're enough)
If I could create my own world or planet (Singing, "You're the one," oh, oh, no)
I would call it "Harmony"
My world would look like a place where people take good care of creation
And look out for the wellbeing of others perfectly
Their energy will derive from God's love in their hearts
Our God's love working in their hearts
