

In My Bed

RAY BLK

Got me sipping on red wine
Roll one, I gotta get high
Since you been gone, it's Rizla and alcohol
Call you, who's in the background?
You lie, that's why I drove round
Now I can see, the writing is on the wall

On the thirty-second of Nevuary
That's our anniversary
'Cause we never were at all
Ignoring the signs
Believed you were mine
Had my body controlling my mind, mind

I should've known where this would go
When my heart says yes, I can't say no
Let you get into my bed
Now you won't get out my head
Every promise that you made, you never kept

In my bed, in my, in my bed
All the things you said
In my head, in my head
All the things you said
In my bed, in my bed
All the things you said
In my head, in, in my head

Musta forgot Ray Blizzy was a bad one
Piss me off, I turn into a mad one
Break my heart, make the headlines
I'm turning into
Light up the crib
I ain't talking baby with a bib
Only got boss boys calling
He ain't got funds, I'm done talking

On the thirty-second of Nevuary
That's our anniversary
'Cause we never were at all
Ignoring the signs
Believed you were mine
Had my body controlling my mind, mind

I should've known where this would go
When my heart says yes, I can't say no
Let you get into my bed
Now you won't get out my head
Every promise that you made, you never kept

In my bed, in my, in my bed
All the things you said
In my head, in my head
All the things you said
In my bed, in my bed
All the things you said
In my head, in, in my head
