

Reigning

Ray Boltz

When You were born
There lived a king
And whatever he wanted
His servants would bring
His power seemed great
To the people back then
But his glory faded
And Yours never will end

You are still reigning
Glorious One
Mighty Redeemer
God's precious Son
Forever and ever, we worship you
Jesus the King
You are still reigning

When Your return
Unlike before
Our eyes will see You
The glorious Lord
All that we know
Will suddenly change
But even in heaven
This is always the same

You are still reigning
Glorious One
Mighty Redeemer
God's precious Son
Forever and ever, we worship you
Jesus the King
You are still reigning

You reign in power
You reign in power and glory
And You will reign forever
And ever and ever and ever

You are still reigning
Glorious One
Mighty Redeemer
God's precious Son
Forever and ever, we worship you
Jesus the King
You are still reigning
