

Please Forgive and Forget

Ray Charles

My love, I come to you on bended knees
To tell you just how much my poor heart bleeds
For you and to you I am begging please
Please forgive (Please forgive) and forget (And forget, ooh)
I hope and pray that you will understand
I'm trying so hard to do the best I can
But I am weak, and such a lonely man
So forgive (Please forgive) and forget (And forget)

Oh, I love you so, you can never know
And I won't ever let you go
I know this is real from what I feel
So my love, please don't say no

Just take my heart and let us start anew
Then I will prove the love I have for you
And if you love me and I know you do
Please forgive and forget

Oh, I love you so, you can never know
And I won't ever let you go
I know this is real from what I feel
So my love, please don't say no

Just take my heart and let us start anew
Then I will prove the love I have for you
And if you love me and I know you do
Please forgive and forget
