

Rock And Roll Shoes

Ray Charles

It seems like yesterday
I heard the people say
Son, you were born to stray
Someday you'll settle down

I guess there'll come a time
Maybe I'll tow the line
But right now I'm doing fine
Rolling from town to town

I don't care where I ride
I'll let my feet decide
Do anything but don't ask that I
Hang up my rock and roll shoes
Hang up my rock and roll shoes

Guitars and ringing tones
In my blood and in my bones
Show me a bus and I'll call it home
'Cause I don't wanna change

On a lonely day
When they put me in my grave
Ain't a worry you need to save
Just hang up my rock and roll shoes

I don't care where I ride
I'll let my feet decide
Do anything but don't ask that I
Hang up my rock and roll shoes
Hang up my rock and roll shoes

So let that motor run
Headed out towards the sun
I'm in the mood for moving on
But I'll be back someday

I don't care where I ride
I'll let my feet decide
Do anything but don't ask that I
Hang up my rock and roll shoes

I don't care where I ride
I'll let my feet decide
Do anything but don't ask that I
Hang up my rock and roll shoes
Hang up my rock and roll shoes

Hang up my rock and roll shoes, Ray
Hang up my rock and roll shoes, yeah
Hang up my rock and roll shoes, I'm gonna
Hang up my rock and roll shoes, let me
Hang up my rock and roll shoes, B.J.
Hang up my rock and roll shoes, why don't you
Hang up my rock and roll shoes, Ray
Hang up my rock and roll shoes
