

Manila

Ray Dalton

Wake up in Manila, ride to Belize
Dive into the ocean and feel a little free
Skies of vanilla, smell it through the breeze
You could be the one, take a chance with me

You're runnin' circles 'round your heart (Oh, yeah)
I know it's goin' to be real dark (Oh, yeah)
I take a minute, light a spark (Oh, yeah)
We can dance until the fall
Si te vienes conmigo piénsatelo bien
Vamos a cien por hora, un poco del revés
Porque cuando arrancamos ya no para el tren, eh
Mira que te lo cuento bien, ieh-eh

Why don't we live? Why don't we live?
Why don't we live just a little bit?
Why don't we stay? Why don't we stay?
Why don't we

Wake up in Manila, ride to Belize
Dive into the ocean and feel a little free
Skies of vanilla, smell it through the breeze
You could be the one, take a chance with me
Take a chance with me

(Oh)
And take a chance with me (Ba-da, ba-da)
And take a chance with me

Y si mezclamos mi cerveza y tu tequila
Hoy no hay controles de Berlín hasta Manila
Ay, tu sonrisa me parece poesía, yeah
¿Cómo te digo? ¿Cómo te digo yo?

Why don't we live? Why don't we live?
Why don't we live just a little bit?
Why don't we stay? Why don't we stay?
Why don't we (Uh)

Wake up in Manila, ride to Belize
Dive into the ocean and feel a little free
Skies of vanilla, smell it through the breeze
You could be the one, take a chance with me
Take a chance with me

(Oh)
Take a chance with me (Ba-da, ba-da)
And take a chance with me

Why don't we live? Why don't we live?
Why don't we live just a little bit?
Why don't we stay? Why don't we stay?
Why don't we stay just a little bit?
