I ain't been home in weeks
I put 2 thousand miles walking around in these Louis V's
I got my guard up these snakes claiming they're cool wit T
But I don't trust nobody gotta realize I'm hurtin'
But I fill up when I buy that new benz New rafe, hit 'n bad hoes, off duse
But they sweeter than Mama Kool -Aid aww nah
I fill up when I get that back end
Dick get hard when she do that backbend
Bitch don't ask no questions I'm just here to stand on business awwwwwwweee

I can't lie, it feel good to be blessed like this
Gorilla mode got me beating my chest like this
I'm on a roll and I'm building a brick by brick
Uh huh
Tryn (Yeah)

I gotta stay focused I ain't going back
Feel like I just hit rock bottom
Niggas ain't knowin' that
Spent all my cash so I had to ask the homie to hold the stack
I been sleeping on the floor till I get my sofa back
Whippin' in the Jeep till I get my rover back
I'm on a dead end street and I ain't talkin' colda sack
I just bought my new bitch a new Maybach
And Lord know, I really don't wanna take it back

I can't lie, it feels good to be blessed like this Gorilla mode, got me beating in my chest like this
I'm on a roll and I'm building a brick by brick

Bitch I'm a boss, can't let 'em see me fall
Big racks on me, they call me Greenbay
Cuz the pack on me

But I be stressed and I'ma be honest

And I can't lie, it feel good to be blessed like this Got me beating my chest like this
I'm on a roll and I'm building it brick by brick
Tryn

Get my money up, that's gon' be my payback
Watch me get my money and everything else
She said she love me when she say that
They got me pissed like the barber, push my fade back
If you don't love me, just say that
I'm on my shit 'cause it's the payback, yeah

You raise a man, I promise I'll display no fear

I can't lie, it feel good to be blessed like this
