

How Did I Know

Ray J

I woke up with all of the power, money and respect today
I bought my wife some new flowers
And took her to a special place
Bought her a brand new dress, Vera Wang, special made
Yellow diamonds, sweet as pink lemonade
I use to be a renegade
I use to have a bunch of bitches in my place
I use to have a swimming pool in my living room
Fuck almost every girl
And for the love of Ray J
I use to whip a mini van
I use to fill Jillian and Lillian
I acted silly with those millies man
Now I got a wife that ah kill me man
You know I'm a new man

Look at the ring on my left hand
I got business out in Thailand
I'm doing deals with the white man
I know loving you was the right plan
I got to spend some more time and
Do a little compromising
That's how I'm a make it right yeah
Ohhh yeaah
How did I know?
How did I know?
That she would be the girl in my life yeah
How did I know?
How did I know?
That she would be the girl in my life yeah

Back in the day I was a player
I didn't even have to chase her
Every day I was ditching school just to go get some
Hitting grown women was the mission
Didn't need no permission
I was ditching class for bubble baths
Breaking every rule in the scriptures
Now I kicked my addiction
Down to one woman who is the realist
I be home like Gary Coleman shit
What you tallking about Willis?
Never catch me with another bitch
Girl you fucking with the realist
20 million to my sister
Now your lil baby brother is rich

I got business out in Thailand
I'm doing deals with the white man
I know loving you was the right plan
I got to spend some more time and
Do a little compromising
That's how I'm a make it right yeah
Ohhh yeaah
How did I know?
How did I know?

That she would be the girl in my life yeah
How did I know?
How did I know?
That she would be the girl in my life yeah

She don't have to wear no make up
But she likes to make her face up
So I bought her all the match she could use when she done
I'll replace em
They got our picture on the screen with the heart at the baseball stadium
Take a trip from Jamaica, Queens with my Queen to Jamaica
My baby girl like them oxtails and them plantains on the regular
By the beach playing Maxwell
Oh what the hell I done it now

I got business out in Thailand
I'm doing deals with the white man
I know loving you was the right plan
I got to spend some more time and
Do a little compromising
That's how I'm a make it right yeah
Ohhh yeaah
How did I know?
How did I know?
That she would be the girl in my life yeah
How did I know?
How did I know?
That she would be the girl in my life yeah
How did I know?
How did I know?
That she would be the girl in my life yeah
How did I know?
How did I know?
That she would be the girl in my life yeah
