

Right On Time

Ray J

Just wanna let you wake me I'm coming home to you

Right on time

I been waiting so long to see you smile

I know you need me now

Right on time

Time

Right on time, right on, right on

Right on time, right on time, right on time

Right on time

Right on time, right on time, right on time

Right on time, right on time time, Right on time

Girl live

Only you know

How much time I'm right with you

Don't need no Rolli that Richard Mill on my wrist or that big bang Hublot

I just wanna look in your eyes

Peep me like the time

Like a wine faced Rolli you shine babe you're killin' 'em all of the time

Incredible, you do them yachts get rid of them boats

That's for them thoughts

Say you ain't gon' stop me

Then I catch a vibe are you ready

'Cause baby I'm ready to go, like what a surprise

Just wanna let you wake me I'm coming home to you

Right on time

I been waiting so long to see you smile

I know you need me now

Right on time

Time

Right on time, right on time

Right on time, right on time

Right on time, right on time, time

Right on time, right on time, right on time

Everything that you dreamed of, finding it hard to maintain now

Grinding all day now, for you, for you

I can't let you down, if s not in my plans

Hope you understand, know in advance

I'm trying to be the one that you lean on, ain't no time for no demons

Anywhere that you need, I'll be there on time I

Just wanna let you wake me I'm coming home to you

Right on time

I been waiting so long to see you smile

I know you need me now

Right on time

Time

Right on time, time, right on time, right on time

Right on time, right on time, right on time

Right on time, right on time, right on time
