

Patricia

Ray Peterson

Kiss her and your lips will always want Patricia
Stroll her, see Patricia move with all her charms
Mambo, cha-cha, or meringue, it's Patricia
Heaven, that's where you'll be when she's in your arms

Who took the place of Diggy-
Dinah, and made the Sioux jealous too
And when she's wearing a bikini, her hips will have you hypnoti zed
Far off, in Japan they brag about the Geisha
Who cares as long as Uncle Sam has got Patricia

Eyes that have a starry sort of gleam for you
She is like a million dollar dream come true
Everybody wishes they could steal her heart away, I guess
There's so many trying but she'll never ever will say yes

Kiss her and your lips will always want Patricia
Stroll her, see Patricia move with all her charms
Far off, in Japan they brag about the Geisha
Who cares as long as Uncle Sam has got Patricia
