

Cold Day In Hell

Ray Scott

I remember sayin'
It'd be freezin' rainin' down in hell
The day that I left you
You were my heaven
And there was no way I ever could imagine
That was somethin' I could do

Yeah you were the one
From here to kingdom come

But like it always seems to go
Someone I thought I'd come to know
Just came to represent my darkest fear
I never dreamed you'd let me down
But I'm out of forgiveness now
And when I woke up this mornin' it was clear
That cold day in hell is here

We've all got our limits
We all hang in there 'til we know
We can't hang in there anymore
You brought me to the point of breakin'
There's no way of takin' it all back
Babe it's too late by far

For me to change my mind
I won't waste my life

Walkin' further down the road
With a heart as black as coal
Babe this is where I disappear
With whats left of my pride
You ripped my heart open wide
Cry all you want I just can't care
You know damn well
That cold day in hell is here

I remember sayin'
It'd be freezin' rainin' down in hell
The day that I left you
