

Hey Fool

Ray Scott

Hey fool
Ya gonna buy her that drink?
Ya really gonna let her think you ain't taken
Hey fool
Yeah, people do it all the time
If ya think that makes it alright
You're mistaken

Do you even realize what the hell you have
A good man would kill or die for a woman like that
Fool, you know, you're gonna lose her someday
And if I see you on the street, I'm gonna walk right up and say

Hey fool
Ya really wanna be that guy
That makes the ladies roll their eyes when they see you
Hey fool
Ya wanna get stuck in that place, where no matter what you say
She won't believe you

Do you even realize what the hell ya have?
A good man would kill or die for a woman like that
Fool, you know, you're gonna lose her someday
And when they see you on the street, you know they're gonna want to say
Hey fool

Hey fool
Yeah, I've been there done that man
You're gonna have to lie down in that bed you're making
Hey fool
It's gonna haunt you night and day
Don't wait til it's too late
Don't do what I did

Yeah, I forgot just what the hell I had
I broke her heart, I hurt her, oh, so bad
And I miss that angel more with every passing day
Now when I look in the mirror, it never fails to say
Hey fool

Hey fool...
Damn fool...
