

Slow Dance

Ray Scott

It's another Friday night
My back against the bar
I'm standin' here lookin' out
At that old hardwood floor
Listenin' to the band
Layin' down a 2 step groove
But lately I've been thinkin'
I need a different tune

I need someone I can slow dance with
Someone I can romance with
Someone I can hold tight all night long
A lover who can't help but sway
When we hear our sweet song play
Someone I can slow dance with from now on

I used to be the guy
Who didn't need no one
But when I saw you that first night
Somethin' told me I was wrong
When I see those deep brown eyes
And you smiling back at me
That band starts slowin' down
Cause I'm thinkin' you might be

Someone I can slow dance with
Someone I can romance with
Someone I can hold tight all night long
A lover who can't help but sway
When we hear our sweet song play
Someone I can slow dance with from now on

I need a lover who can't help but sway
When we hear our sweet song play
Someone I can slow dance with from now on
Someone I can slow dance with
