

Stoned

Ray Scott

Life ain't handin' me nothin' but heartache and pain
I wake up every mornin' to more of the same

I don't need no reminding
That ol' lady luck's never smilin'

That's why I stay stoned
You can judge all you want
But until I'm gone
If I still feel this alone
I'll just stay stoned

Naw she didn't leave me nothin', not a note or a sign
She ran off with another, left this ol' boy behind

Hell let her go I don't need her
This here grass is much greener

So I'll just stay stoned
You can judge all you want
But until I'm gone
If I still feel this alone
I'll just stay stoned

Yeah until I'm gone
Condemn or condone
I'll just stay stoned
I'll just stay stoned
